

BLESSED SACRAMENT CHURCH

Blessed Sacrament's Journey

From 1901 to 2010

In 1901 Fr. Michael Irwin traveled 250 miles by horse and buggy to say Mass four times a year in the Holt House.

In 1935 the "Little Brown Church" is built and dedicated as the parish grows to eight families. In August the school opens with 25 children.

The Koury Center Gym is used temporarily for Mass as the new Blessed Sacrament Church is built to accommodate the new growth.

October 31, 1971 the first Mass is said in the new 400 seat church.
