Dear Parent,

For the past 38 years, young Catholics from across the eastern part of North Carolina have gathered to celebrate their faith at the Annual Catholic Youth Conference, sponsored by the Diocese of Raleigh. Over the years, this event has grown to an enormous weekend-long experience for more than 800 youth and adults from more than 3 dozen different parishes. It is our largest and longest running programs for youth in the Diocese.

The 38th Annual gathering of Catholic youth and adults takes place this May 15-17, 2009 at the Greenville Convention Center. Every participant experiences meaningful celebrations, workshops, prayers, etc. and they get to celebrate their faith in a unique way. Each participant also receives a Commemorative Program as a keepsake of the weekend experience.

I invite you to consider placing an advertisement in our program. Think about how supported, loved, and encouraged your child(ren) will feel to read a message of love from you. It will warm their hearts and give them a sense of identity with and connection to their family for years to come.

The rates and ad sizes are detailed on the Ad Order form (enclosed). This would be an ideal opportunity to affirm your child(ren) and express your deep love for them

Please note that the deadline for submitting advertisements is Friday, April 3, , 2009. If you have questions, feel free to reach me at the contact information below. Otherwise, I thank you in advance for supporting our efforts on behalf of these young people and the adults who work with them.
