Grand Knights Report

Brothers,

July was a relaxing time for some and stressful for others. In either case, one has to remember that there is no time off for preparing yourself for coming into being with the Lord's plan. As you all well know, one of our Brothers passed away recently. There is no need to list all daily activities where Brother Joe Dick was involved in the council. If I did, I would need to buy more gigabytes for my hard drive to hold them all. My summary on Joe is that there is an Angel among us who has been watching over us and is not leaving us anytime soon. He is just a little closer to God's side than before. Let us all keep Brother Joe, LeRae and their families in our prayers.

This year is honored as "The Year of Joseph Salvatore Fazzino of Burlington, N.C. died Thursday evening July 9, 2009 after an illness of the past four months.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Salvatore and Jennia Lamantia Fazzino and his wife, Linda Jordan Fazzino.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, he served in the U.S. Marines at Cherry Point Marine Base. Through his love of the ocean, he met the love of his life, Linda, while enjoying time at Harker's Island, N.C. After their wedding in 1954 at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, they began their life together in Burlington where he was employed with Western Electric. They later relocated to Long Island, N.Y. where he worked with Applied Research. A strong family man, they returned to Linda's hometown of Burlington in 1972. After working for Vocational Trades of Alamance, he launched his own business, Technical Skills, here in Burlington.

Joseph joined the Knights of Columbus in 1955 and is a Life Member.

the Priest". For each degree we host, I would like to present to one of the parish's priests a certificate dedicating that degree in his honor.

Retention and Membership will be key issues this year. As I said before, there are usually the same reasons why we lose brothers. Relocating and not communicating when doing so is one of the primary ones. We need to make the extra effort to communicate with them in some means where possible.

Fraternally,
